Local orthopedic surgeon to discuss partial knee replacements

(Hendersonville, N.C.) Brian Seng, D.O., orthopedic surgeon with Hendersonville Orthopaedic Associates, will present "Minimally Invasive Partial Knee Replacement" at the Pardee Health Education Center on Fri., Oct. 23, from 12:30 until 2 p.m.

Dr. Seng will discuss the pathophysiology of knee arthritis including new and innovative techniques for the treatment of end-stage arthritis, specifically the concept of partial knee replacement. Registration for this free presentation is required by calling 1-866-790-WELL (9355).

Dr. Seng received his degree in osteopathy from Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine in Kirksville, Mo. He completed his internship and residency at St. John Oakland Hospital in Madison Heights, Mich. Dr. Seng completed his fellowship in adult hip and knee reconstruction at Joint Implant Surgeons in Columbus, Ohio. Dr. Seng's medical career began during volunteer trips to Calcutta, India and Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

Dr. Seng specializes in less invasive techniques for hip and knee replacements and is affiliated with Pardee Hospital's Center for Joint Replacement, which is dedicated to the treatment and rehabilitation of patients undergoing hip, knee and shoulder replacement surgery.

The Pardee Health Education Center is a unique community outreach program of the hospital that provides an array of services from health fairs and screenings to seminars and support groups. Last year, the center provided more than 10,000 free and low-cost screenings to community members.

Pardee Hospital is a not-for-profit community hospital founded in 1953. The main hospital is licensed for 222 acute care beds and is the second largest employer in Henderson County. The hospital has several locations separate from the main campus, including an adult day services center, a health education center in the Blue Ridge Mall, home care services, a rehab and wellness center, a midwifery program, various family and internal medicine practices, and an urgent care facility. For more information or to find a physician, call 1-866-790-WELL (9355) or visit www.pardeehospital.org.
